

Data Protection and UK GDPR

Core Course

Power up your data protection confidence with a course that transforms UK GDPR from a legal obligation into a practical, empowering part of your dance teaching toolkit.

You will learn to distinguish personal data from sensitive data, understand exactly who's responsible for what, and get crystal-clear on the rights of every learner you work with. Through real-world dance-sector scenarios, you will unpack the seven GDPR principles, explore the role of the ICO, and build the skills to apply compliant, ethical data handling in every corner of your professional practice.

This is your route to safer systems, stronger trust, and standout professionalism where you teach.
